Dear Supplier

EXTENSION OF DUE DATE FOR THE REQUEST FOR PROPOSALS – SUPPLY OF LONG-ACTING INSULIN PREPARATIONS

PHARMAC is extending the due date for proposals for the supply of long-acting insulin preparations 5pm, 3 February 2006. The extension is being provided to enable all suppliers to participate in the process.

The terms of the Request for Proposals (RFP), clause 5 (a) (i), allows PHARMAC to make such adjustments to the RFP process as it considers appropriate at any time during the process.

Suppliers that have already submitted proposals may, if they wish, amend their proposals and re-submit by this date. Unless amended, proposals already received will be assessed according to the process outlined in the 30 November 2005 RFP document.

If you have any questions about this RFP, please contact Jackie Evans at PHARMAC.

Yours sincerely

Matthew Brougham
Acting Chief Executive
